Focus Macomb looking for new members

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Focus Macomb, a group of influential community and business leaders, is seeking applications for possible new members to help promote Macomb County's economic growth.

Although most of last year's members will continue their involvement, a few vacancies are expected. The organization is hoping that decision makers from other businesses and organizations interested in becoming involved will submit applications.

Focus Macomb was formed in March 2006 to assist the Macomb County Department of Planning & Economic Development in examining issues that affect businesses. Together, they are developing and implementing strategies to stimulate economic growth and improve the county's quality of life.

Goals for Focus Macomb's second year include focusing more on in-depth evaluation of the recommendations put forth in the first year and finding ways to increase the county's ability to retain and attract jobs.

For more information or to get an application to join Focus Macomb, visit www.macombbusiness.com.
